

Privacy Policy Statement

We, REDS Hairdressing, take individual privacy seriously.
This Privacy Policy Statement explains our policies and practices.

We limit the personal data collected to the minimum required.
We permit only properly trained employees overseen by the management to access personal data.
We will never disclose your personal data to external parties.

We respect your privacy and we will use reasonable endeavours.

The purpose of the data collected:

- We wish to provide better services.
- To notify you of our seasonal offers.
- To share our services or products.

We will only inform you of our offers via virtual and mobile platforms. We will never call you to do so except for appointment bookings. By providing the requested information, you consent for us to use your personal data for the above described purposes.

Your Consent and Rights

You have the rights to send requests to correct your data or to cease communications.
